Girl Scouts of Southeast Florida to Present Historical Fashion Show at 7th Annual Luncheon

JUPITER, FL, March 31, 2009— Join the Girl Scouts of Southeast Florida for an afternoon of celebration, memories, and inspiration at the 7th Annual Luncheon and Silent Auction. The benefit will be held on Saturday, April 25, 2009 from 11am-2pm at the Raymond F. Kravis Center in West Palm Beach. Guests will enjoy a trip down memory lane with a “Girl Scouting through the Decades” Fashion Show, featuring authentic Girl Scout uniforms and accessories dating back to the 1920’s.

“We are very excited about the Fashion Show,” commented Luncheon Chairwoman, Christine Pitts. “The Girl Scout uniform is an American icon. It will be fun to flashback to see how it changed throughout history.”

Presenting Sponsor for the event is The C. Kenneth and Laura Baxter Foundation. Joining Chairwoman Christine Pitts on the host committee are Honorary Chairwoman Virginia Spencer, Betty Assaf, Carol Bernton, Michele DeLong, Carol Dubinsky, Sonja Fex, Nancy Gernand, Allyson Gorman, Patty Hamilton, Debbie Higgins, Lesley Hogan, Dorothy Jacks, Theresa LePore, Morna McGann, Arlene Monti, Phala Murray, Barbara Myer, Michaelina Oliva and Twala Wagner.

The 7th Annual Luncheon and Silent Auction will be held on April 25 at 11 am, at the Cohen Pavilion at the Kravis Center for the Performing Arts, 701 Okeechobee Boulevard, West Palm Beach, Florida. Tickets for the event $55 and sponsorships are available. Contact Kandi Osman at (954) 739-7660 ext. 226 or at kosman@gssef.org for more information.

About Girl Scouts

Girl Scouts builds girls of courage, confidence and character who make the world a better place. Through the Girl Scout Leadership Development Program, girls discover their personal best and prepare for a positive future, connect with others in an increasingly diverse world, and take action to solve problems and improve their communities.

A premier voice for girls and a leading expert on their growth and development, Girl Scouts is a highly regarded, contemporary organization. Girl Scouts offers girls ages 5-17 remarkable opportunities to develop values and contribute to society as leaders, thinkers and responsible citizens.

Girl Scouts of Southeast Florida serves 19,000 girls in Broward, Palm Beach, Martin, St. Lucie, Indian River, and Okeechobee Counties. For more information, visit www.gssef.org or call 866-727-GIRL (4475).
