

Mari: Responsible for What I Say and Do

Badge Overview

Daisies earn petals that go around the Promise Center to complete their Daisy flower. The Mari petal is one of ten petals you can earn, each representing a line of the Girl Scout Law. When you've earned your Mari petal, you'll know how to be responsible for what you say and do, just like Mari the Marigold.

Badge Components

1. Talk about "Mari's Story"

Earn this step by watching this video to hear Mari's story—Keeping a Cupcake Promise! Then, answer the questions below.

- When did Mari show that she was responsible for what she says and does?
- How do you think she felt when she couldn't get ice cream with her cousins? How do you think she felt when she finished decorating the cupcakes?
- How do you think the rest of the dandelions felt after Tula and then Miss Evergreen asked them to stop teasing Darla?

2. With your Daisy friends, act out different ways to be responsible during the day—from the time you wake up to the time you go to bed!

Earn this step at home by coming up with 3 ways you can be responsible at home, at school, and at a Girl Scout meeting. Act them out to your family at home to show what you've learned!

- BONUS! Next time you connect with your Daisy friends, act out one of your examples of how you can be responsible and see if it is something they do too!

3. Practice being responsible for what you say and do

Earn this step by trying out the activity below or coming up with your own way to be responsible for what you say and do!

- Help your family by promising to help clean up a shared space and then keep your promise by doing it.
