

Rallyhood Community Guidelines

We are excited to offer Rallyhood as a digital space to connect, communicate and strengthen our Girl Scout community. All users of GSSEF's Rallyhood agree to abide by the following community guidelines.

1. Be Kind and Courteous

We are all part of the Girl Scout community, and we ask that everyone help create a welcoming and supportive environment. Treat others with respect and kindness, and remember to live by the Girl Scout Promise and Law. Healthy discussion and differing opinions are welcome, but personal attacks and disrespectful behavior are not.

2. Keep it Girl Scout Focused

Rallyhood is intended for Girl Scout-related conversations, information, and activities. Please keep posts and discussions relevant to Girl Scouts and the purpose of the Rally or community.

3. No Harassment, Bullying or Derogatory Attacks

Hostile acts, malicious gossip, harassment, or derogatory attacks concerning anyone associated with Girl Scouts of Southeast Florida, including girls, registered volunteers, parents or caregivers of members, and employed staff, are not permitted.

Profanity, verbal abuse, and cyberbullying are never warranted and will not be tolerated in the Girl Scout environment. This includes degrading or discriminatory comments related to race, religion, culture, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, disability, or other personal characteristics.

4. No Promotions or Spam

Please keep Rallyhood focused on supporting our Girl Scout community. Unsolicited promotions, spam, irrelevant links, and unrelated commercial content are not permitted and may be removed.

5. Share Accurate and Helpful Information

Help us maintain a trusted source of information for our Girl Scout community. Deliberately sharing false or misleading information is not permitted. Posts containing misinformation may be reviewed and removed when appropriate.

6. Protect Personal Information

Help protect the privacy and safety of our Girl Scout community. Do not post or share personal information belonging to another person without their permission, including phone numbers, home addresses, email addresses, private meeting locations, or other sensitive information. Personal financial information, including bank account details, credit card numbers, or other sensitive financial information, should never be posted or shared in Rallyhood.

7. Photo and Video Sharing

Please use good judgment when sharing photos or videos in Rallyhood. Only share images of girls and other individuals when you have the appropriate permission to do so. Personal details, private information, and meeting locations should not be shared publicly.

Photos and stories shared within Rallyhood may be visible to other members of the Girl Scout community and, where appropriate and permitted, may be used by GSSEF in council communications, social media, or other marketing materials in accordance with applicable photo and media permissions.

8. Belonging and Inclusion

Rallyhood should be a welcoming space where everyone feels that they belong. Users are expected to engage respectfully with girls, caregivers, volunteers, staff, and other members of the Girl Scout community.

Access to individual Rallies and communities may be limited to appropriate registered members, caregivers, volunteers, staff, or other approved participants based on the purpose of that space. For details about social media age requirements, please refer to our GSSEF Member & Volunteer Policies.

9. Maintaining a Safe Online Community

We all play a role in maintaining a safe and positive Girl Scout environment. If you see content or behavior that does not follow these guidelines, please report it to an admin or email customercare@gssef.org so the concern can be reviewed.

Posts or comments that do not adhere to these guidelines may be removed. GSSEF Member & Volunteer Policies will be enforced when applicable, and additional action may be taken when warranted.

By participating in GSSEF's Rallyhood community, you agree to help us create an environment that reflects the values of Girl Scouting: courage, confidence, character, respect, and kindness.
