New Leader Training in Product Programs

Welcome to the Sweet Success Series, a monthly training program crafted for Girl Scout volunteers dedicated to mastering our product programs. This series will empower you with the knowledge and skills to maximize sales while reducing the common frustrations and mistakes associated with the product programs. By participating in this training, you will streamline the process, making it easier and more enjoyable for Girl Scouts and their families. This positive impact will lead to a more rewarding experience for everyone involved, fostering stronger community ties and enhancing the overall success of your troop. Join us each month to discover best practices, innovative strategies, and practical tips that transform challenges into triumphs, paving the way for your Girl Scouts' sweet success!

Ready to enhance your skills and make a positive impact on your Girl Scout troop? Register now for the Sweet Success Series!
